

YOUNG WRITERS' REWARD PROGRAM

The Guardian Newspaper is hosting a youth writing competition commencing October 28th, 2016 ending August 24th, 2017. We are encouraging all aspiring writers below the age of twenty five to submit his/her article at guardian@btl.net along with a copy of their identification card. Articles will be chosen on a weekly basis and will be published on the Guardian Newspaper. The writer will be rewarded and have a chance to win a grand prize at the end of the competition.

WHAT ARE YOU TO DO TO ENTER THE COMPETITION?

1. Email guardian@btl.net or private message Guardian Newspaper on Facebook with your article along with a valid ID.
2. Write a well articulated article. Articles must be written in English, unpublished and professional with a word count of approximately 800 words. Each article will be graded based on structure, style, mechanics, professionalism and originality.
3. Purchase a copy of the Guardian Newspaper and follow the Guardian Newspaper Facebook page to see if your article was selected and to receive updated information on the competition
