Japanese Government (Monbukagakusho: MEXT) Scholarships

The Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology (MEXT or Monbukagakusho) of the Government of Japan offers scholarships to foreign students who wish to study at Japanese universities.

As of the 2015 Japanese academic year, some 102,000 students from approximately 160 countries and regions around the world have studied in Japan under the Japanese Government (Monbukagakusho) Scholarship program established in 1954. As of May 1, 2015, there were 9,223 foreign students studying in Japan as Japanese government scholarship students.

Since 1994, the Government of Japan awarded Research (Graduate) Student Scholarships to 40 Jamaicans, 3 Belizeans and 2 Bahamians to pursue Masters and Doctorial studies in Japan. More recently, undergraduate Student Scholarship has become available to citizens of all three countries and College of Tehnology Student Scholarship to Jamaicans.

2018 MEXT Scholarships for Jamaica, Belize and The Bahamas
